

I. THE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Holy Family College of Nursing aims to be the center of academic excellence in the field of nursing education. The School of Nursing, Holy Family Hospital, New Delhi started in 1956, was a bud which has bloomed into College of Nursing. In all these years it has stood steadfast for the mission and vision of providing high quality nursing education. B.Sc (Hons) Nursing programme started in the year 2011 under University of Delhi. The College was inaugurated on 12th August 2011 by His Grace Vincent M. Concessao, Archbishop of Delhi. The occasion was graced by the Guests of honour, Prof. Dinesh Singh, Vice Chancellor of Delhi.

Holy Family Hospital is the parent hospital of the College. It is a 345 bedded multi- specialty Hospital, run by the New Delhi Holy Family Hospital Society and managed by the Delhi Catholic Arch- Diocese. It is registered as a Charitable Non- profit Registered body under the Societies Act/ XXI of 1860 and has the Archbishop of Delhi as its Chairperson. It was founded by the Medical Mission Sisters in 1953.

The foundation stone was laid by His Excellency, Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, Vice President of India. Subsequently, the running of the Hospital was handed over to Delhi Catholic Archdiocese in 1990. The Hospital endeavours to maintain a good General Hospital standard that will benefit people from all economic strata of society. A strong emphasis is placed on promotive and preventive health services; these are rendered through outreach programmes and always in collaboration and co-operation with the people and the Government. The Hospital is alert to the changing needs of the people it serves; it will pioneer, go beyond present situations; take risks and respond to the signs of the times in effective love and service within the scope of its purpose.

II. PHILOSOPHY

Holy Family Hospital, New Delhi

The vision and values of the Founder Mother Dr. Anna Dengel, are an integral part of the philosophy of this Hospital. "Open and attentive to the signs of the times, the Hospital endeavours to respond to the needs of Society by offering its services even in areas where others hesitate – or fear to tread "The dignity of the person supersedes all other considerations and there is no discrimination of class, caste, creed or religion. Health in its wholeness is the chief concern, and the Hospital puts all its resources, human, material and spiritual at the service of those in need.

At the core of Holy Family Hospital, New Delhi, lies the conviction that all people are equal and share the same divine life. The Creator of all life calls forth from all of us in this institution a commitment to serve our fellow being. All the services in this Hospital aim to preserve, protect and promote healing of the whole person, through a General Medical Hospital facility.

"A Caring Attitude" is the hallmark of all the services offered and not just the dignity but also the divinity in a human person is recognized in all our endeavours.
